Dear Madam

RE: NAMIBIA: TRADE MARK REGISTRATION NO. NA/T/2016/0299 FOR RENT-A-DRUM IN THE NAME OF RENT-A-DRUM (PROPRIETARY) LIMITED

The above matter refers.

Kindly find enclosed hereto the original certificate of registration for the abovementioned trade mark. We confirm that this mark is due for renewal on the 9th of March 2026.

The Registry should send out a renewal reminder to the address for service approximately three months before the due date. In practice this does not happen. We will also diarise our file in order to ensure that a renewal reminder is sent to you. However, we do not accept any responsibility or liability if for any reason no renewal reminder is sent to you, or if sent, it fails to reach you. Accordingly, we advise that you should similarly diarise your files in this matter to ensure that the trade does not lapse due to non-renewal.

We trust you find the above in order and once again thank you for your instructions herein.

Kindly acknowledge receipt of the said documents by email.

Yours faithfully

Cronjé & Co
